

Non-State Schools Accreditation Board

Special assistance school – Notice that use of temporary site has stopped

Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Act 2017

Section 50

Form TSAS-F2

Legislative background

The Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Act 2017 (the 'Accreditation Act') and the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (the 'Accreditation Regulation') establish a legislative framework for accreditation and eligibility for government funding of Queensland non-State schools.

The Accreditation Act provides for the establishment of the Non-State Schools Accreditation Board (the 'Board'). The Board is an independent statutory authority that regulates non-State schooling in Queensland. Its responsibilities include making decisions on the accreditation and eligibility for government funding of non-State schools and changes in accreditation attributes of non-State schools, as well as monitoring governance arrangements and compliance with accreditation criteria.

Privacy information

Information about the collection of personal information on this application form can be found in Section 3 of this form.

Important information

This form applies if the governing body of a non-State special assistance school has stopped providing special assistance at a temporary site.

Applicants need to ensure that this form is completed fully and correctly, and that it addresses and complies with requirements of:

- the Accreditation Act
- the Accreditation Regulation and
- any other relevant documents published by the Non-State Schools Accreditation Board.

The Accreditation Act and Accreditation Regulation can be accessed at the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel website at <https://www.legislation.qld.gov.au/OQPChome.htm>.

Sections 47 to 53 of the Accreditation Act provides for special assistance school temporary sites.

Under section 50 of the Accreditation Act, if the governing body stops providing special assistance at the temporary site, the governing body must give the Board notice, in the approved form, that the governing body has stopped providing special assistance at the temporary site.

The individual making the declaration on this notice for the governing body will be contacted in the first instance if any information submitted on this notice requires attention or clarification.

The Board may require an applicant to provide further supporting information or documents.

Lodgement

The governing body can submit the completed notice and supporting documentation via NSSAB Online Services.
